

HOW MR. HENEY HAS BEEN PAID.

Oregonian News Bureau, Washington, D. C.—Francis J. Heney has been paid a total of $65,000 to date for his services in connection with the prosecution of the Oregon land fraud cases, these payments covering the period beginning November 7, 1903, when he was first appointed "Special Assistant Attorney-General of the United States to assist the United States Attorney for the District of Oregon," down to the beginning of the present year. The last payment was made to Mr. Heney January 21, 1909.

From the attorney-general it is learned that payments to Mr. Heney have been made as follows:

July 6, 1904 . . . . .	$ 5,000
March 10, 1905 . . . . .	7,500
August 10, 1905 . . . . .	5,000
February 13, 1906 . . . . .	7,500
August 24, 1906 . . . . .	7,000
August 9, 1907 . . . . .	5,000
December 26, 1907 . . . . .	5,000
March 2, 1908 . . . . .	8,000
July 6, 1908 . . . . .	10,000
January 21, 1909 . . . . .	5,000

Total to date . . . . . $65,000

It is evident, from a statement made by the attorney-general, that Mr. Heney will receive further compensation, for, contrary to public knowledge, he is still retained on the government payroll, and paid out of special appropriations placed at the disposal of the attorney-general. Since Mr. Heney retired from the active prosecution of the land fraud cases, he has been, says the attorney-general, retained in an advisory capacity to co-operate with and advise other government counsel, in whose hands rests the prosecution of the cases still untried.

Whether Mr. Heney will continue on the payroll of the department of justice after March 4 will depend upon the attitude of the incoming attorney-general. Those who are close to Mr. Taft freely express the opinion that the next president does not entertain for Mr. Heney that same regard that has been shown by President Roosevelt and, according to these authorities, the "advisory" services of Mr. Heney may be dispensed with.—Portland Oregonian.

Of royalties who patronize the theater the Princess of Wales is, according to "The Stage Year Book," the most enthusiastic, as she is reported to have been thirty-one times in the course of the last year, while the queen follows her closely with a record of thirty visits, "What Every Woman Knows" and "The Merry Widow" being among the most popular plays.

THE EARNING PERIOD.

Of a man's life is his season of plenty—his harvest time. It is then, if ever, that he must lay aside the stores for the winter of his life.

You—what are you doing with the proceeds of your harvest? Do you waste it all, or are you wisely saving a portion? These are pertinent questions—not impertinent. Let us help you to save. Make this bank your granary and keep safe the golden grain of your industry.

git de brewer with a shotgun. De Circle decides unanimous dat dat would be brutal like prize fight-in' and de shotgun guy raises such a 'rough house from disappointment dat Adolph wad't buy no more beer. We wuz forced to disband and Sadie Golzoruki sells de bomb to a junk man for a scuttle of suds.

"Since dat time de splees of de Czar has been hot on me trail."

"So has Boots Durnell ever since you doped one of his nags he meant to put over, said the regular customer scornfully.

"Dey can never touch me now," said Turp with beaming face. "Again I am a political refugee. Rev. Willie Thurston Brown says so. Besides it'll soon be too hot too work, anyway." After a long-ing glance at the empty glass Turp drifted out to the livery stable where he secures his nightly box stall, offering in exchange the least labor possible.
